NASCUS WA Directors College, April 22, 2013

Make plans to attend Directors College
Monday, April 22 in Tukwila, WA

Regulators of all industries – including financial services – are turning their attention to the manner in which boards of directors carry out their responsibilities. At the same time, credit union (CU) operations, products, services and regulations are growing in complexity. NASCUS encourages state credit union board members to join us for this one day event geared toward enhancing directors' understanding of the critical statutory, fiduciary and regulatory responsibilities of a director.

Agenda:

1. “National Issues for Credit Unions”
Mary Martha Fortney, President and CEO National Association of State Credit Union Supervisors (NASCUS) and Troy Stang, President and CEO, Northwest Credit Union Association (NWCUA)
2. “Current Exam Issues for Directors”
Linda Jekel, Washington State Director of Credit Unions and Janet Powell, Oregon State Supervisory Examiner for the Credit Union Program
3. “Director Responsibilities”
Boeing Employees Credit Union (BECU) - Representative TBD
4. “Critical Compliance Issues for Directors”
Laura Fiene, Assistant Regional Director Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB)

The school is scheduled from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Monday, April 22, 2013 at the BECU Financial Center, 12770 Gateway Drive, Tukwila, WA 98168. Tuition for NASCUS members is $199. Tuition for nonmembers is $299. Content is geared toward state and federal CU directors but all CU officials are welcome to attend. If you have any questions or wish to register, please email Isaida@nascus.org or phone 703-528-0796.
